

Banking on the Go Descriptive Transcript

[A man uses a smartphone while walking past a parked car. A phone with a dollar symbol.]

Today's on the go lifestyle deserves an equally mobile banking app to keep things running.

[A briefcase, graduation cap, baseball and palm tree.]

Whether you're off to work, school, the big game or a blissful weekend at the beach, we're coming along.

[A woman checks her smartphone while carrying a coffee cup down a narrow street in a European style old town.]

Put your finances at your fingertips with the Commerce Bank Mobile Banking App.

Not sure if that purchase is a good idea.

[Text: Check your balance. A checking account and credit card balance under a header, Instant Balance.]

Check your balance before you buy. Once you're ready to make a purchase, just make a quick transfer.

[Text: Transfer funds. A confirmation to transfer $45 between checking and credit card accounts.]

Birthday check from Aunt Agnes.

No need to take it to the bank. Just deposit with a snap.

Hang on a second. Did the electric bill get paid.

[A question mark on the phone screen. Text: Pay bills. A payments screen.]

No worries. Just send a payment from the Bleacher seats.

[Text: Set travel notifications. Questions on the screen ask, where are you going? When are you traveling? Contact phone number, and contact email address.]

When heading out of town, just let us know with a travel notification. We'll make sure you can seamlessly use your cards at your destination after you've set up alerts.

[A person reads a message conversation on a smartphone.]

We text you when something happens that you want to know about. No active monitoring necessary.

[A girl listens to headphones while using her phone and smiles.]

Money management on the go is a snap with Commerce. Banana and Agness. Thank you note.

That's on you. Commerce bank challenge accepted.
